RELIABILITY EXCELLENCE® CONFERENCE 2017

The Reliability Excellence Conference

Life Cycle Engineering announces the launch of a new event for engineering, operations and maintenance professionals who have used Reliability Excellence education and best practices to improve performance at their organizations.

Join the community of Reliability Excellence users for two days of sharing best practices and learning new approaches to continuous improvement.

Plan to network and join highly interactive sessions with your peers on topics like:

- Effective Assessments and Measures
- Stakeholder Management
- Competency Development
- Tools & Technology
- Leading a Culture of Reliability
- Rx Resources

This event will be shaped by you, the Reliability Excellence community, to provide the inspiration, case studies, tools, and strategies you need to take your workplace to the next level of performance. Learn from experts who have taken the Reliability Excellence journey and are now sustaining the benefits. You'll leave the event energized to take on your daily challenges with new approaches. You, too, will be Powered by Reliability Excellence!

When:

Thursday, February 23
